Summary information

Repository: Edmonton Public Schools Archives and Museum

Title: Edmonton Public Schools fonds

Date: 1881 - ? (date of creation)

Note [generalNote]:

History of Name Change(s):
Edmonton Public Schools was established in 1885 by the Northwest Territories Council. At the time, it was called Edmonton School District #7 (Protestant Public School District #7). On February 26, 1907, it was announced that the district name would change to the Edmonton School District No. 7 of the North-West Territories. The District was first referred to as Edmonton Public Schools in the 1955 Annual Report. In August 2019, the District name was changed from Edmonton School District to Edmonton School Division.

Scope and content

The fonds consists of minutes, correspondence and annual reports of the Board of Trustees of the Edmonton School District No. 7 and committees of the Board; student records; blueprints, plans and correspondence related to purchasing, construction, maintenance and renovation of school buildings; personnel files including employee contract and salary records; promotional and public relations material; curricula and teaching material; financial records, including assessment rolls from 1885 onward; and school district planning documentation. Also includes administrative files and bulletins from the office of the Superintendent of the District. Includes records of individual schools, including staff meeting minutes, financial records, student government records, and material related to sports and club activities.

Series: Directory of Pupils

Creator: Student Information and Assessment

Title: Directory of Pupils

Title [statRep]: Edmonton Public Schools

Date: 1936-1965 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

Series consists of a single sheet for every class, in every school, per school year. Early years list boys and girls on separate sheets. High Schools are missing from 1964-65. Forms record school, date, teacher, students, each student's address, birth date, grade, religion and residency status. Information was used by the finance/revenue area to calculate the annual education grant submission to Alberta Education. The lists then served as a directory of students, for the district, for the school year.
